actually it depends on your crime if you can and cannot drive a car, and no felons don’t qualify for those rights, that’s why they can’t vote, because they are deemed irresponsible it also states "by personal religious affiliation, we include catholics, protestants, jews, hindus, and a sprinkling of moslems and buddhists."

even if you’re the driver, there are still a few options to help occupy your mind